

The Right to Respect

Workplace harassment training

Respect Each Individual Employee

Demonstrate the commitment of your organization to providing a work environment which promotes fairness and respect to each individual employee, and freedom from discrimination and harassment. This program provides legal compliance and protection, in line with Ontario's employment legislation, Bill 168 and the Quebec Labour Code.

Training Outcomes

- Create an awareness of conduct that is considered acceptable
- Provide support and protection to employees
- Outline the process to use if harassment or discrimination occurs
- Protect employees against workplace harassment and discrimination
- Clarify manager's legal responsibilities

Training Outcomes

- Commitment to a harassment free work environment
- Overview of the employment legislation and labour code
- Definition of harassment
- Prohibited grounds of the Human Rights Code
- And more...

Quebec

5790 Rue Pare
Mount Royal, QC, H4P 2M2

Ontario

2 Robert Speck Parkway
Suite 750
Mississauga, ON, L4Z 1H8

Contact

514-428-8877 or 1-855-566-4827
www.bromelin.ca
info@bromelin.ca